POINT WATERSPORTS CLUB
CLUBHOUSE UPDATE

Dear Members,

The long weekend is almost here, and we're egg-cited to celebrate Easter with you at the club!

Yes – we're OPEN on Monday the 21st of April, and it's going to be a fun-filled day for the whole family. Don't forget to bring the kids along for our annual Easter Egg Hunt happening on Sunday, it's always a highlight on the club calendar, and we can't wait to see everyone getting in on the action.

To kick off the festivities early, we've hidden a few sneaky Easter eggs throughout this newsletter! Think you can spot them all? WhatsApp us the number you've found, along with your FULL NAME to 067 392 8774 – and you could be our lucky winner of a special Easter surprise! HINT: The hunt poster doesn't count!

This weekend's entertainment line-up:

- Friday 18 April – Christine from 13h00 to 16h00
- Sunday 20 April – The Situation from 13h00 to 16h00

Come down, enjoy some sunshine, great company, and live music as we celebrate the season together.
See you at the club – and happy hunting!

Warm regards,

Grant Wessels
General Manager

Durban Undersea Club

The Underwater Hockey Nationals tournament was held over this last weekend. Was a weekend filled with great well played hockey. KZN teams preformed extremely well resulting in, Ladies A team being awarded silver medal. Men's A teams received gold medal (we stand to be corrected but do believe it is the first time KZN has won gold at Nationals A level). Big congratulations needs to go out to the players selected to represent SA for the world qualifiers in August :-

SA Ladies Elite Team

1. Julie
2. Tatton
3. Jeanie

SA Mens Elite Team

1. Ryan
2. Brandon

SA Mens Masters Team

1. Brent
2. Byron (non travelling reserve)
3. Wes (non travelling reserve)

Introducing the first annual Sodwana Freediving Trip - a brand new tradition for our DUC Freediving crew, inspired by the long-standing scuba club getaways! We're kicking things off in style with an epic long weekend in one of South Africa's top dive destinations. For just R3020, DUC members can enjoy 3 nights in Camp A cabins with Coral Divers plus 3 ocean dives with the amazing team at Da Blu Juice. Snorkellers are also welcome, and the dives are open to all levels, whether you're just starting out or already diving deep. Non-members can join too at full price. Space is limited (our boat only fits 10 divers!), so don't miss out! Contact Angie today on 082 874 1706 or info@saltescape.co.za to secure your spot!

Durban Ski Boat Club

The excitement is becoming tangible with less than 2 weeks until the Durban Festival '25. Plans are being discussed in the wash bay and in the club and everyone is trying to get as many last-minute tips and bits of advice as possible, to make sure they hook the fish that takes home this year's amazing prize of a SEACAT 565, with 2 x Yamaha 100 hp 4-stroke motors, T-top and trailer, valued at over R1 Million. Entries are still open, and if you haven't done so yet, you can use the QR code below to submit your entry now.

Things seem to be lining up nicely for the event, with some really good Couta being caught in the last week, and the long-range weather forecast is also looking very good too.

Over the weekend, Andre Uys collected his 254l Defy freezer, which he won in the March Early Bird Entry lucky draw. Congratulations Andre.

From this coming Monday, three of our Durban Ski Boat Club anglers, Anton van den Berg, Cameron Johnston & Mark Winterboer will be competing in the Tuna Nationals Tournament in Hout Bay, and we wish them all the best for the tournament and safe travels.
Finally, we must congratulate Anton van den Berg on his selection as Vice President (and acting President,) of SADSAA, and Justin Paynter on his selection as a SADSAA selector. Congratulations gentlemen. It is wonderful to see our province represented so strongly at that level.
